

HYMN OF PRAISE:

"Jesus, Grant That Balm and Healing"

Jesus, grant that balm and healing
In Your holy wounds I find,
Ev'ry hour that I am feeling
Pains of body and of mind.
Should some evil thought within
Tempt my treach'rous heart to sin,
Show the peril, and from sinning
Keep me from its first beginning.

Ev'ry wound that pains or grieves me
By Your wounds, Lord, is made whole;
When I'm faint, Your cross revives me,
Granting new life to my soul.
Yes, Your comfort renders sweet
Ev'ry bitter cup I meet;
For Your all atoning passion
Has procured my soul's salvation.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, during His earthly ministry Your Son, Jesus, healed the sick and raised the dead. By the healing medicine of the Word and Sacraments pour into our hearts such love toward You that we may live eternally; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

(Please be seated.)

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING: Lamentations 3:22–33 (The Lord pours out His mercies to us – they are new every morning!)

²² The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; ²³ they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

²⁴ "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

²⁵ The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. ²⁶ It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD. ²⁷ It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. ²⁸ Let him sit alone in silence when it is laid on him; ²⁹ let him put his mouth in the dust—there may yet be hope; ³⁰ let him give his cheek to the one who strikes, and let him be filled with insults.

³¹ For the Lord will not cast off forever, ³² but, though he cause grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love; ³³ for he does not afflict from his heart or grieve the children of men.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE EPISTLE READING: 2 Corinthians 8:1–9, 13–15 (God gives us a generous spirit, even in the midst of suffering.)

¹ We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, ² for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³ For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord, ⁴ begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— ⁵ and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. ⁶ Accordingly, we urged Titus that as he had started, so he should complete among you this act of grace. ⁷ But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you—see that you excel in this act of grace also.

⁸ I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. ⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich. ¹³ For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of fairness ¹⁴ your abundance at the present time should supply their need, so that their abundance may supply your need, that there may be fairness. ¹⁵ As it is written, "Whoever gathered much had nothing left over, and whoever gathered little had no lack."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE ALLELUIA VERSE:

Al-le-lu-ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e-ter-nal life. Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

THE HOLY GOSPEL IS ANNOUNCED:

The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark the fifth chapter.

Glo-ry to You, O Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Mark 5:21–43 (Jesus heals a woman and a little girl.)

²¹ And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about him, and he was beside the sea. ²² Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and seeing him, he fell at his feet ²³ and implored him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live." ²⁴ And he went with him.

²⁵ And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, ²⁶ and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. ²⁸ For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I will be made well." ²⁹ And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰ And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my garments?" ³¹ And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, 'Who touched me?'" ³² And he looked around to see who had done it. ³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

³⁵ While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" ³⁶ But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." ³⁷ And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. ³⁸ They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ And when he had entered, he said to them, "Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping." ⁴⁰ And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. ⁴¹ Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." ⁴² And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. ⁴³ And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

THE CHILDRENS MESSAGE

HYMN OF THE DAY

"Great Is Thy Faithfulness"

Hymn #809

THE MESSAGE

"Our Faithful God"

Pastor Brighton

THE APOSTLES' CREED:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our Altar Flowers were provided this week by Doug & Cindy Branham, in honor of their son, Michael's, birthday, and by Don & Judy Parrott, in honor of their 56th wedding anniversary on June 7th.

Member of the Week, Nora Crofutt, grew up on a farm in Arkansas. In 1970, she came to Georgia to be closer to her twin sister. They were the youngest of 8 children. She was married to James Crofutt in 1972 and they had 4 children. Deanna lives in Virginia, Jean lives in Byron, Jimmy lives in Centerville and Julie lives in Oregon. They also had 10 grandchildren, including 2 sets of twins!! They joined Mt Calvary in the early 80's. Jim worked in construction until he had eye problems and was declared legally blind. Nora was a stay-at-home mother, but when Jim lost most of his sight they delivered newspapers together. In 1998, Jim got sick and passed away and Nora continued to deliver papers alone until the company was sold in 2003. Nora then got a job with the Houston County Board of Education in the nutrition department. She also worked part time at Cracker Barrel as a cashier. She recently retired from there after 8 years. Nora enjoys going to the Sunday School classes at Mt. Calvary each Sunday.

Mount Calvary has received a gift in memory of Helen Moore, Molly Townsend's mom, from Carl & Barbara Mabee.

Mount Calvary has received a gift in memory of Betty Kroeger, Nancy Hoar's mom, from Libby McCarty.

Vicar Kevin Thomson's Farewell Potluck Luncheon is scheduled for 12 July after the late service. Please sign up on the potluck attendance sheets located on the information desk.

Looking for a place to "fit in" at church? The Altar Guild can always use a few more hands, especially in the summer months. What does Altar Guild do? Well, there are six teams of ladies (4-5 on each team), that work about every 3 months for 2 weeks in a row. They make sure the altar is clean and prepared for each service. That means filling candles, preparing for communion, changing the colors of the paraments on the altar when needed, etc. We have wonderful teams of ladies, and you would have LOTS of help working with a group as you learn what needs to be done. If interested, contact Ruthie Radcliff at 397-0630 or bigbluiz@att.net.

I'd like for everyone to know how thankful I am for my church family and their prayers and loving concern. I could not have made it through without your love and support.

– Barbara Mabee

Summer Sunday School – Please volunteer to be a summer Sunday School teacher for our Pre-K to 5th grade students. Our regular teachers are on vacation for 2 months, and we need YOU! We have crafts, scrapbooking, Stories with Jesus, movies, and Pre-K. The dates are July 12, July 19, and July 26. If you could help for at least 2 Sundays, that would be great!
